Kafka in Prague

Exhibition Opening + Lecture

The Goethe-Institut, the Embassy of the Czech Republic, the Czech Centres and the organisers of Kafka Year 2024 invite you to the opening of the Kafka in Prague exhibition on Monday, 3. June 2024 at 6 pm.

The evening programme opens with a presentation by Professor Michal Stehlik, the Director of the Museum of Czech Literature, who will deliver an online lecture on the historic context of the timeless literary works of Franz Kafka. With support from the Embassy of Israel and in homage to Kafka's Jewish & European heritage, the exhibition opening & lecture will be complemented by a solo performance by the Jewish-Ethiopian musician Rasmiskir Hailu Gebru, which will be followed by a reception.

This public event is organised to commemorate the enduring legacy of Franz Kafka's cultural works and his contribution to the global arts scene on the hundredth year of his passing on 3. June 1924.

The Kafka in Prague exhibition at the Goethe-Institut in Addis Abeba remains open between 4. June till 19. July 2024.
