Festival Alur Bunyi will be held on Saturday, 20 July 2024 at Goethe-Institut Jakarta, Jl. Sam Ratulangi 9-15, Menteng. Now in its third year, the Alur Bunyi Festival initiated by Goethe-Institut Indonesien continues to strengthen its position as a cultural event that highlights local talents, artistic collaborations and a harmonious mixture of musical genres.

Festival Alur Bunyi features the following lineup of musicians (alphabetically):

- Bank
- Budi Utomo Prabowo Presents Female Chamber: Lidya Evania Lukito, Yosephine Madju, Victoria
- Diskoria Live Set
- Lomba Sihir
- Monita Tahalea x Bayu Risa
- Rupa Suara Audiovisual Performance
- Sal Priadi
- Tomorrow People Ensemble
- Tunes by : Tri & Gian Carlo

“The Festival’s core spirit remains intact: to be a space for local musicians and artists to converse with each other whilst providing a space as a catalyst for collaboration. Embracing the rich diversity of the local music scene, the festival puts various music genres onto one day event. From fusing electronic music with jazz, classical and ballads, to disco, the festival creates an eclectic soundscape that resonates with a diverse range of music lovers and visitors,” says Dr. Stefan Dreyer, Director of Goethe-Institut Indonesien.

Elizabeth Soegiharto, Programme Coordinator of Goethe-Institut Indonesien and Curator of Festival Alur Bunyi says, “Adding a new dimension to this year’s festival experience will be supporting activities such as virtual reality game and board games, sharing session on stage photography in concerts, and an interactive installation and exhibition titled Rupa Suara. Visitors of this year’s festival will be able to interact with sound installations and audio-reactive visuals, witnessing a performance that culminates from the creative collaboration between local talents and the creative scene.”

The Rupa Suara exhibition is a collaboration between Goethe-Institut Indonesien with artists Indra Perkasa and Firzi O, along with eight participants selected through an open call. As a testament to the festival's commitment to include a wealth of disciplines that are intertwined with music, the exhibition is the final presentation of the immersive sound and audio-reactive visual workshops that were held in December 2023.

The festival is open to the public and is free with advance registration via www.bit.ly/fab\_2024.
