

PROJECT LEAD – OF A PROJEKT IN CULTURE AND CREATIVE INDUSTRIES IN EASTERN PARTNERSHIP COUNTRIES

Goethe-Institut Tbilisi
Reference number A6190800
Position: Full-Time
Compensation until EG 13 EntgO TVöD
Type of contract: fixed-term employment contract

We have a fixed-term (February 1st, 2025, until April, 30st 2029) position for a Project Lead become available.

About the role:

We are seeking an experienced and dynamic Project Lead for an EU funded project on Culture and Creative Industries in the Eastern Partnership (EaP) countries. The project is a pivotal initiative developed to strengthen different sectors in Eastern Partnership (EaP) countries, aiming to transform culture into a key driver of economic growth, social development, gender equality and resilience. By focusing on sustainable creative ecosystems in non-capital cities, EU4Culture supports the European Union's commitment to fostering robust international cultural relations while promoting culture-led economic and social development.

Your responsibilities

- Lead the project, overseeing a budget of approximately 10 million euros and managing a team of approximately 19 members.
- Monitoring progress/achievement of project milestones
- Efficiently manage and allocate project resources allocation
- Network with key stakeholders across the Goethe-Institut, the European Union and other relevant organizations.
- Prepare and monitor the project budget, ensuring timely and accurate submission of reports
- Act as external representative of the project, advocating for its objectives and outcomes

Your profile

- A university degree in Administration, Political Science, Communication science, , European Studies, or a related field.
- At least 10 years of relevant experience, with a minimum of 5 years in the education, culture, or information sectors.
- Extensive experience in managing projects within the cultural sector, including the coordination of multidisciplinary teams, and collaboration with diverse cultural institutions and stakeholders.
- Proven experience working with institutional and public sector partners
- Demonstrated experience in managing large-scale projects, particularly EU funded projects
- Experience in working in/with at least one of the Eastern Partnership Countries an advantage
- Strong leadership and team management skills

GOETHE
INSTITUT

Sprache. Kultur. Deutschland.

- Excellent oral and written communication, organization and interpersonal skills
- Fluency in English and German (C1 level)
- Familiarity with the Goethe-Institut and its operations is an advantage.

What you should know

- Our services and working methods are characterized by openness and diversity. We support and promote diversity as a key to understanding and trust
- Equal opportunities and inclusion are important to us. We strive for a balanced gender ratio in all positions and particularly invite interested parties with severe disabilities to apply

Contact person:

Dr. Rebecca Böttcher, personnel consultant, +49 89 15 921-986

charta der vielfalt

GOETHE
INSTITUT

Sprache. Kultur. Deutschland.