TRANSATLANTIC POLITICS

A1 – Get to Know

WORLDS APART

Despite being worlds apart, the state or Bundesland where you live has unique features, as well as similarities to your partner's state or Bundesland.

YOUR ASSIGNMENTS

1

With a partner or a small group, brainstorm facts about the state or Bundesland where you live. This should include, but is not limited to, name of the state or Bundesland, location in your country, population, major landforms, climate, and tourist attractions. Include other significant finds about your state or Bundesland.

2

From the assignment above, select the characteristics you feel represent your state or Bundesland best.

3

For your selected characteristics, design a visual presentation. Be sure to include lots of images.

4

Get in touch with your partner(s) from the partner class. Share your presentation and explain why you feel it represents your state or Bundesland.

5

After all presentations have been shared, meet with your partner class to discuss the commonalities between the two states or Bundesländer.

6

Publish your presentation on a platform provided by your teacher and view the presentations created by the other students.
